

Helpful Hints & Tips to Fundraising

Make a goal – When you signed up to be a Hard Walker, you agreed to raise a minimum of $500. When you signed up to be a Day Tripper, you agreed to raise a minimum of $50. You'll be surprised at how many people will support you once you reach out to them. We also encourage you to raise the bar even higher than the minimum.

Set up your fundraiser page – Once you've registered to be a Hard Walker, Day Tripper or Punk Walker you will be directed to set up your fundraiser page. You can write your own personal story, set your fundraising goals and send links to family and friends. You can also track your donations. If you need additional help setting up your page, just call us. 866-9MB-WALK

Make a list of all your potential donors – Write out a list of everyone you know; family, friends, co-workers, neighbors, holiday card or wedding lists, members of groups, librarian, doctor, local dry cleaners, teachers. The larger your list is of potential donors the easier it will be to raise your money. The more people you share your story with then the more people will get involved.

Asking for a donation – Once you ask for your first donation, you will feel inspired to keep asking. Your first ask could be by email, in-person or over the phone. Remember the more people you tell about your fundraising the easier it will happen. Don't forget to ask Big. Typically, if you ask for $100 you'll receive $100 and if you ask for $10 you'll receive $10. Don't be shy. Everyone wants to help make a difference.

Follow up – Follow up with your potential donor list. Some people just need a simple reminder.

Thank your donors – It's important to thank your donors no matter how big or small a donation may be. Every contribution makes a difference.
